

- affair, i 470-473; attack by Eng-land feared by, i. 472; claim that sphere of interest in Morocco had been offered to, i. 470, 475, 476; real aims of, in Morocco, i. 489; proposals concerning Moroccan police force accepted by, i. 490 If; stand of, for international arbitration desired by Carnegie, ii. 227-231; inability of people to appreciate American standards of international morality, ii. 228; attitude toward limitation of armaments, ii. 229; attitude toward universal peace and disarmament, ii. 229, 230; visit to, ii. 244-258; lack of enthusiasm in popular reception in, ii. 245, 246; attitude toward American democracy, ii. 246-248; the women of North, ii 251; Socialism in, ii. 248, 257, 278; friendship with United States in 1908, ii. 280, 281; arbitration treaty with United States urged, ii. 283; violation of Belgian neutrality by, ii 373; denunciation of, ii. 391, 408; submarine warfare of, ii. 420, 422; outrages committed by, in world war, ii. 460, 461
- Gibbon, Edward, i 269
- Gibbons, Cardinal, letter to, i. 190
- Giers, Gertrud, ii. 293
- Gilder, Eichard Watson, letters to, i. 2, 354
- Girouard, Percy, ii 192
- Gladstone, ii. 147, 149, 151; Morley's Life of, i 268, 269, 337
- Gleichen, Colonel Count, ii. 265, 266
- Godkin, E. L., tribute of, to Boosevelt, i. 68
- Goethals, Colonel, full power given to, in construction of Panama Canal, i. 459-464, 466; letter to, i. 463
- Goldsmith, Oliver, ii. 147
- Gompers, Samuel, i 250; ii. 48, 132; rebuke to, ii. 432-434
- Gorce, De la, ii. 233; Trench histories by, i. 446; ii. 163
- Gorky, Maxim, estimate of, ii. 12
- Gorman, Senator, i 274, 433
- Gorst, Sir Eldon, ii. 191
- Government employees and labor unions, i 250, 251, 253

Government ownership of railroads, ii.
     31, 32
 Governmental administratio n, ideal
     in, ii. 19, 20
 Governors, letter from seven Bepub-
     lican, ii. 316;
     reply to, ii.
     319
 Governorship
     of New York, election
     to, i. 112;
     inaugural
     address, i.
     113; work
     during, i 114
     &., 128
     ff., 141 ff.;
     appeal to Boosevelt to run for, in 1918, ii. 451-
     454
 "Grandeur et Decadence
     de Borne,"
     by Ferrero,
     ii 165, 166
 Grant,
     President U.
     S., Civil Service Advisory Board appointed by, i.
     43;
     Generalship of, compared with that of Lee, i.
     349; foreign policy
     of, ii. 384
 Gray, Judge
     George,
     chairman
     coal strike investigating commission, i 217; favored for Democratic Presidential,
     nomination,
     i. 314; letter
     to, i. 220
 "Great
     Adventure,
     The," ii. 458
 "Great-Heart," ii. 115
 "Great Hero of the Air, The,"
     by Bordeaux, ii.
     447-450
 Greatness,
     achievement of,
     i. 446, 447
 "Greek View of Life, The," ii
     73
 Greeks, spirit of, compared with Japanese spirit,
     ii. 73; in the classic
     age, ii. 154
 Greeley,
     Horace, ii. 390
 Greene,
     General
     Francis V., letters
     to, i 101, 138
 Greene,
     General
     Nathanael, ii.
     161,
     168
 Greenway, Jack,
     ii. 464
 Grey, Lord, in the American Bevolu-
     tion, ii 164
 Grey, Sir
     Edward, ii.
     208; affection
     of, for Boosevelt, ii.
     175, 177; letters to, ii.
     341, 347, 373
 Griseom,
     American Ambassador at Tokio,
     message to, i.
     393
 Grosvenor, Congressman,
     i. 243, 245,
     321
 Grote's History
     of Greece, ii.
     162
 Gummere, S. E., American Consul-General in Morocco, i.
     320-322; a delegate to Algeciras
     Conference, i.
     503
 Guynemer, biography of,
     bv Bordeaux, ii 447-450